The Paul Erdős Memorial lecture

given by:

Luc Devroye, (McGill U.)

School of Computer Science
McGill University
Montreal, Canada

Abstract:

Most trees computer scientists deal with are descendants or generalizations of search trees and tries. In this lecture we review the recent results on random univariate and multivariate search trees and tries.